

As an experienced instructor, Sara is determined that carriage driving training should, above all, be fun

To date she has twice been the single pony BHDTA National Champion and, with her win at Windsor this year, has now been crowned Pony Team National Champion three times, as well as being a winner at the Indoor Horse Driving Trials Finals.

In 2011 she was a member of Team GB who took part in the FEI World Combined Ponies Championships in Lipica, driving her pony four-in-hand team and is currently aiming for next year's World Pony championships due to take place in Pau, France in October 2013.

It should be fun

Sara really enjoys coaching new pupils – she is continually involved in the training programmes of the juniors and runs her own camps at her carriage driving centre. She coaches the Young British Drivers and has accompanied them as their chef d'équipe to the Junior World Trophy in Austria in 2008, Hungary in 2010 and Austria again in 2012.

Bradbourne Carriage Driving Centre, established in 1987, is a successful family business, which boasts excellent facilities, especially for RDA drivers, including a purpose-built clubhouse, and excellent facilities for the RDA group who are based there as well as countless others who continue to enjoy learning to drive with an instructor who, above all, is determined that it should be fun.

Above and below right: Bradbourne Carriage Driving Centre boasts its own purpose built clubhouse. Inset: Setting off for a lesson: one of Sara's pupils

New book: Progressive Carriage Driving A lesson-by-lesson guide with Sara Howe

Written to be a source of useful information for anyone who is starting out in the sport of carriage driving and who wishes to progress to their first competition. Through a series of progressive lessons, this book will guide you through learning to carriage drive at a reputable establishment, training your own pony and entering your first competition.

Sally Taylor, an experienced writer and photographer has recorded Sara's thoughts, words and methods, to produce a book that will be an invaluable source of reference to any aspiring carriage driver.

- 116 pages full colour A4 paperback
- Fully illustrated
- Available for £19.99 Plus £3 P & P (UK) £6 (Overseas)
- To order your copy call us on 0800 137201 or see our website www.carriage-driving.com

Progressive Carriage Driving

A lesson-by-lesson guide

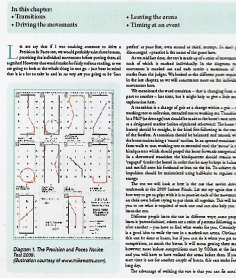

With Sara Howe
Words by Sally Taylor

Driving competition cones

Driving precision & paces

More road driving

Practical skills

As an experienced instructor, Sara is determined that carriage driving training should, above all, be fun

To date she has twice been the single pony BHDTA National Champion and, with her win at Windsor this year, has now been crowned Pony Team National Champion three times, as well as being a winner at the Indoor Horse Driving Trials Finals.

In 2011 she was a member of Team GB who took part in the FEI World Combined Ponies Championships in Lipica, driving her pony four-in-hand team and is currently aiming for next year's World Pony championships due to take place in Pau, France in October 2013.

It should be fun

Sara really enjoys coaching new pupils – she is continually involved in the training programmes of the juniors and runs her own camps at her carriage driving centre. She coaches the Young British Drivers and has accompanied them as their chef d'équipe to the Junior World Trophy in Austria in 2008, Hungary in 2010 and Austria again in 2012.

Bradbourne Carriage Driving Centre, established in 1987, is a successful family business, which boasts excellent facilities, especially for RDA drivers, including a purpose-built clubhouse, and excellent facilities for the RDA group who are based there as well as countless others who continue to enjoy learning to drive with an instructor who, above all, is determined that it should be fun.

Above and below right: Bradbourne Carriage Driving Centre boasts its own purpose built clubhouse. Inset: Setting off for a lesson: one of Sara's pupils

New book: Progressive Carriage Driving A lesson-by-lesson guide with Sara Howe

Written to be a source of useful information for anyone who is starting out in the sport of carriage driving and who wishes to progress to their first competition. Through a series of progressive lessons, this book will guide you through learning to carriage drive at a reputable establishment, training your own pony and entering your first competition.

Sally Taylor, an experienced writer and photographer has recorded Sara's thoughts, words and methods, to produce a book that will be an invaluable source of reference to any aspiring carriage driver.

- 116 pages full colour A4 paperback
- Fully illustrated
- Available for £19.99 Plus £3 P & P (UK) £6 (Overseas)
- To order your copy call us on 0800 137201 or see our website www.carriage-driving.com

Progressive Carriage Driving

A lesson-by-lesson guide

With Sara Howe
Words by Sally Taylor

